It is crazy how fast the time flies in between our meetings! Can you believe it is already the third Saturday of the month coming up!!?!?!?

First, we'll have a new member joining. Renee Taylor is one of my spiritual daughters, she lives in St. Louis. We met in the beauty shop probably 12 years ago???? We've been girls ever since. Welcome Renee to the group.

So....I'm pretty sure this will be our last foray into the topic of truth.

Is there a truth that you'd like to talk about on Saturday? If so, send it to me so I can do some prep work. You can share it with the group if you'd like, but I'd just like some time to mediate on it before we meet. If you can, send it to me by Thursday at noon.

Don't forget we'll be discussing, "How can I know for certain that I'd go to heaven if I died tonight?" Did you mediate on this? Did you make any notes in your journal?

Another discussion, I think we'll have time for two, "All roads lead to God." Is this true? If so, why? If not, why? Did you find any Bible study or article that you can share with the rest of us to support your position?

These two discussion topics are meant to make sure we've 'rehearsed' our thoughts on this so WHEN we are asked to defend our faith we're ready.

1 Peter 3:15 AMP - But in your hearts set Christ apart [as holy—acknowledging Him, giving Him first place in your lives] as Lord. Always be ready to give a [logical] defense to anyone who asks you to account for the hope and confident assurance [elicited by faith] that is within you, yet [do it] with gentleness and respect.

This is part of our Belt of Truth that we must be equipped with. We must always remember that people can be sincere, but they can be sincerely wrong. We want to make sure we can present the truth of the Gospel in our own words and with conviction. We also want to make sure we are 'standing' in the truth to the degree that we won't be moved!!
